

THINK ACCESSIBILITY

The Safety Code states:

You must consider the needs of children, older people and disabled people, with particular regard for visually impaired people, and you must provide: a safe route suitable for people using wheelchairs, mobility scooters, prams or pushchairs

Be aware of pedestrians walking by, including those with:

- Mobility impairment
- Visual impairment
- Sensory impairment
- Chronic health conditions

Consider your surroundings & the location of the works.